L’intervento della Ue e degli Usa in Ucraina è un’aggressione ai lavoratori dell’Ucraina e dell’Est! Ed esso è tutt’uno con la politica anti-proletaria della Bce nell’eurozona e del governo Renzi in Italia!
What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitative Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitative Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitative Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitative Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitive Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitive Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitive Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

What “brotherly help” are we talking about? The US and EU intervention in Ukraine is an attack on workers of Ukraine, Russia, Europe and the whole world.

The democratic media claim that in Ukraine there was a popular uprising, and that Russia is maneuvering to impose on the country the iron fist. Yet, there has been no popular insurrection in Ukraine.

Moreover, Putin and Yanukovitch are enemies of the only workers, and only workers, can defend themselves from Western aggression to Ukraine.

The “new” rulers who settled in Kiev sing the praises of the indefatigable Russian and Ukrainian workers, who are the wealth of the country, and portrays a picture of a capitalist, repressive and exploitive Ukraine, which demands the workers to establish a “cure” based on redundancies, increased exploitation, increased competition among workers and the usa and the European Union.

Here is the freedom that the West is trying to “bring” to Ukraine! The democratic media claim that all workers are under threat of losing their jobs, their freedom and their rights.

Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.

Nor is it a case of economic policy designed to create jobs and improve conditions for workers. Western governments are using the labor market as a weapon of blackmail against workers of Western Europe and other countries.